

Faulkner County Board of Realtors
General Membership Meeting
March 9, 2016 11:30 A. M.
Centennial Valley Events Center
Conway, Arkansas

President Glen Rega called the General Membership meeting to order. Jan Barrow led in Prayer. President Glen Rega led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Minutes of the February 10, 2016 meeting were approved as presented. The February 2016 bank statements were approved as presented.

Committee Reports:

Special Olympics-Denis Wigley- Denis Wigley announced that there was $5,815.00 raised for Special Olympics at the Trivia Night event. There will be a Bowl-a-Thon fundraiser May 12, 2016 with one round of bowling starting at 10:00 am. First Security will be providing lunch. The monthly fundraiser at David's Burgers continues each Tuesday night following the General Membership Meeting.

Charitable Contributions-Cherita Geraldson- Cherita Geraldson presented committee member Brittney Burk to introduce Trish Meeks of Last Chance Ministries, the recipient of the First Quarter Contribution. Trish Meeks gave a brief overview of Last Chance Ministries. The Board and committee members presented her with the $500.00 check.

Professional Development-Velda Lueders – Velda Lueders announced that the first CE class provided this year will be March 17 with Karen Crowson as the speaker. FCBOR New Agent Orientation will be May 5, 2016.

ARPAC/Legislative –Spencer Hawks/Mike Argo- Spencer Hawks announced that there have been 112 agents to contribute to date. The goal is to raise $12,500.00 and the committee will be contacting each office to request contributions.

Awards for Excellence – George Heintzen- George Heintzen and committee members presented the 2015 Awards for Excellence.

Conway Title announced that they will be hosting a Self Defense Class in April that will provide two hours of Continuing Education to participants.

Names were drawn for door prizes.

There was no further business so the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Cherita Geraldson
Secretary